

LOCAL RULES

1. A ball lying on a buggy path, flower bed, tyre marks caused by tractors, machinery etc. "through the green" may be lifted and dropped, without penalty, at the nearest point of relief, no nearer the hole, within one club length.
2. If the wooden fencing along the side of the buggy paths interferes with the players' stance or swing, relief may be taken without penalty, at the nearest point of relief, no nearer the hole, within one club length.
3. All fixed sprinkler heads, control boxes and water wells (hole 3, 4 and 6) are immovable obstructions and relief from interference by them may be obtained under Rule 24-2. In addition, if the sprinkler head intervenes with the line of play within two club lengths of the putting green, the ball may be lifted, cleaned and dropped at the nearest point to avoid such intervention.
4. A ball lying within one club length of an unmarked drain on the fairway may be lifted and dropped, without penalty, within two club lengths, no nearer the hole.
5. Stones and fir cones in bunkers are moveable obstructions. Rule 24-1 applies.
6. Out of bounds: white marker posts, on and over all perimeter roads, boundary fences, all villa gardens.
7. Lateral water hazards: Red marker posts. Rule 26 applies.
8. Water hazards: Yellow marker posts. Rule 26 applies.
9. Ground under repair areas; blue marker posts. Rule 25-1 applies.

10. Sandy waste areas on the 7th & 15th are not hazards. The club may be grounded.
11. Fairway distance markers are in meters (1.lyd = 1m) and are measured to the front of the greens.
12. Distances on the card are to the centre of the green.

OCEAN COURSE

VALE DO LOBO ALGARVE

A WORLD OF GOLFING EXCELLENCE

Vale do Lobo is home to two exceptional golfing challenges: the Royal and the Ocean courses, based on original concepts by the legendary Sir Henry Cotton and re-developed by renowned American golf course architect, Rocky Roquemore. The Vale do Lobo golf courses have hosted several European Tour events, such as the Portuguese Open, and Pro-Am tournaments.

The two courses complement each other delightfully. The Royal Golf Course is characterised by undulating fairways set amidst pine trees and beautiful lakes, leading unsuspecting golfers to its pièce de résistance: the breathtaking 16th hole - which plays across the russet cliffs - one of the most photographed golfing images in the world. The Ocean Golf Course, meanwhile, is situated on the very edge of the coastline with fairways running down to the beach, allowing golfers to tee-off alongside some of the most incredible ocean views in the Algarve.

A host of top-notch clubhouse facilities enhance the Vale do Lobo golfing experience: an excellent brasserie and restaurant run by Michelin star chef Maurice Belhaj, comprehensive practice and training facilities including a fully-equipped Fitness Centre, and a range of massages and treatments tailored for golfers at the Royal Spa.
